

Which It Sub-Industry experienced the highest vs lowest growth rate over the 4 years?

INTERNET SOFTWARE & SERVICES & COMPUTER STORAGE & PERIPHERALS 4 YEAR GROWTH

Here is the Bar Graph for the IT Sub-Industry comparing the growth rate for the largest and smallest growth rate for the Internet Software & Services & Computer Storage & Peripherals over the whole 4 years.

The Internet Software Services has the largest growth, which was approximately 53% over the 4 years, while the Computer & Peripherals has the largest decline, which was approximately a negative 27%.

The data for each year and the grand total all show right-skewed distributions because the mean gross profit is greater than the median.

The mean for the IT Sub-Industry average gross profit varies each year, ranging from approximately $26.77 billion to $29.34 billion.

The standard deviation is extremely high for each year, ranging from about $29.67 billion to $33.39 billion over the 4 years.

